

Burden

Ain't no more crying
I've seen the light now
I ain't gonna kill me so that you can live
Them filthy girls that you like to dive in Garbage can't heal you or forgive your sins

This song's a product of our fate
Cus we were another bad mistake
You are a liar and a fake
You are, you are, you are

Yes you're a burden, a ball and chain
You're the last one I'll love in vain
From this I had nothing to gain
So take your poison from my veins
From my veins, From my veins, From my veins

Now I'm angry
You screwed me over
And made me feel as though my love for you was wrong
The spell is broken
I'm finally free now
I put up with your shit for far too long

This song's a product of our fate
Cus we were another bad mistake
You are a liar and a fake
You are, you are, you are

Yes, you're a burden, a ball and chain
You're the last one I'll love in vain
From this I had nothing to gain
So take your poison from my

I tried my best to be your keeper
I tried my best to be your friend
But love has been my greatest teacher
This time I'm gonna save myself

Cus you're a burden a ball and chain
You're the last one I'll love in vain
From this I had nothing to gain
So take your poison from my veins
From my veins, from my veins, from my veins

Take your poison from my veins

Roadrunner

Roadrunner when you gonna settle down?
Come and lay your burdens down by the water
Roadrunner when you gonna settle down
Come and lay your burdens down by the water

Cus I got a man
Please I got a man who wants to love you

Heartbreaker when you gonna keep someone? Why you always gotta run from a lover?
Heartbreaker when are you going to keep someone? Why you always gotta run from a lover?

Cus I got a man
Please I got a man who wants to love you

Now there ain't no question you've been to hell and back Somebody treated you real cruel
You can't win the race if you run in the wrong direction What I'm trying to say is you've got to let love catch up to you

So baby drop your bags and take his hands Cus you won't find a better man who's gonna love you So baby drop your bags and take his hands Cus you won't find a better man who's gonna love you baby, Who's gonna love you baby

It Could've Been Me

We live in a world where people care more about filters and likes than saving human lives We live in a world where some turn their eyes away from people not like them They let oppression rise

It's not a black thing it's not a white thing
It's a human thing that means we've got responsibility
It's not a gay thing it's not a straight thing
It's a human thing that means I've got to treat you equally

What I'm trying to say is the system needs fixing
They'll shoot you whether or not you are resisting
Stop putting the dead on trial
He's not here to tell his side

Oh, it could've been you, it could've been me
Oh, instead it was him
He was somebody
It could've been you, it could've been me

We live in a world where people will choose to discredit a victim even though there is proof We live in a world where people refuse to acknowledge the struggles of harassment and abuse

It's not an us thing it's not a them thing
It's a human thing that means everyone's prone to suffering
It's not a left thing it's not a right thing
It's a human thing that means we've got responsibility

So whether you're Muslim or whether you're Christian
If I'm blaming you it will not make a difference What's it gonna take to change? Are more gonna die in vain?

Oh, it could've been you, it could've been me
Oh, instead it was her
She was somebody
It could've been you, it could've been me

What I'm trying to say is the system needs fixing
They'll shoot you whether or not you are resisting
Stop putting the dead on trial
He's not here to tell his side

Oh, it could've been you, it could've been me
Oh, instead it was him
He was somebody
It could've been you, it could've been me

Oh, it could've been you, it could've been me
Oh, instead it was her
She was somebody
It could've been you, it could've been me
It could've been you, it could've been me

I Miss You

All the things I should've said are running wild like a fire through my head.
And I can't find the strength, can't find a way to face you.
There's still so much I need to say.
You had your moments,
but I feel like I'm to blame.
So I pray that one day these words find a way to reach you.

I know I'm not perfect but I loved you more than life. And I still think you're worth it and I lie awake at night wishing I could say I'm sorry even though you probably hate me.
Though I can't undo what I put you through,
I miss you.

It's been a year that I've been gone.
I try to speak, but the words just come out wrong.
There's so much inside that I've tried to hide. I can't take it anymore.
Lafayette is way too small.
My stomach turns as they begin to talk all about you, the girls you've been through.
Why does it hurt this much?

I know I'm not perfect but I loved you more than life. And I still think you're worth it
and I lie awake at night wishing I could say I'm sorry, even though you probably hate me.
Though I can't undo what I put us through,
I miss you.

The look in your eyes is one I'll never forget.
Part of me died the day that I left.
You're burned in my mind.
My deepest regret.
A love that won't die, though I've buried it.

I know I'm not perfect, but I loved you more than life. And I still think you're worth it and I lie awake at night wishing I could say I'm sorry, even though you probably hate me.
Though I can't undo what I put you through,
I miss you.

I miss you.
I miss you.

What Would They Say

If I'm in the wrong place at the wrong time
And the skin that I'm in is my only true crime
I try to do the right thing but they say I'm a threat
And he makes the decision to steal my last breath

What would they say about me?
Would they say I have a good soul and a heart full of dreams? Would they drag my name through the mud to get some sleep? If they stole my life away what would they say?

So if you turn on the TV and see my face on the screen Would you assume I was guilty and offer no sympathy? I know my mama would cry yeah and all my friends they would grieve But you're blind to my struggle
You don't look and you don't see

What would you say about me?
Would you say I have a good soul and a heart full of dreams? Would you drag my name through the mud to get some sleep? If they stole my life today what would you say?

We've got a lot to learn
Compassion can soothe the burn
Let's love each other please
We've still got room for peace
We've got a lot to learn
Compassion can soothe the burn
Let's love each other please
We've still got room for peace

What would you say about me?
Would you say I have a good soul and a heart full of dreams? Would you drag my name through the mud to get some sleep? If they stole my life today what would you say?

What would you say?
What would you say?
What would you say?

MasterPEACE

Nobody said life would be easy
It's a game we play and no one knows the rules
Got stitches and bruises but I am still breathing
And one too many times love's made me a fool

I'm a sensitive mess and I stress, I get bored far too easily Cus I'm looking at everyone else and not internally It's a shame in our moments of weakness we somehow forget to see, the broken pieces that you want to hide make you a masterpiece

Rising up from the ashes I'm alive
Now I know how to fly
A Phoenix born in the fire and I'm alive now I know how to fly, how to fly

There's light at the end of the tunnel
So keep your head up high even if you're in pain Because beauty can come out of struggle Don't let The Madness of this world drive you insane

You're a sensitive mess and you stress, you get bored far too easily Because you're looking at everyone else and not internally It's a shame in your moments of weakness you somehow forget to see, the broken pieces that you want to hide make you a masterpiece

Rising up from the ashes I'm alive
Now I know how to fly
A Phoenix born in the fire and I'm alive now I know how to fly

I'm dropping this baggage
I'm soaring away
I'm flawed but I'm fearless
I'm starting today

Rising up from the ashes I'm alive
Now I know how to fly
A Phoenix born in the fire and I'm alive now I know how to fly

Rising up from the ashes I'm alive
Now I know how to fly
A Phoenix born in the fire and I'm alive now I know how to fly
